<sup>2</sup> Capitalized terms used but otherwise not defined herein will have the meanings set forth in the Motion.

KERP as set forth in the Debtors' Statement (as defined herein); and the Motion's request for relief (as modified as set forth in the Statement) with respect to the 2022 KERP and the General Counsel's participation in the 2022 KEIP having been granted as set forth in the Order Authorizing the Debtors to Implement 2022 Key Employee Retention Plan and Key Employee Incentive Plan [ECF No. 4862]; and upon the record of the hearing held by the Court on the Motion's amended request for approval of the 2022 KEIP as to the CEO on June 15, 2022 (the "Hearing"); and there being no unresolved objections to the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings before the Court; and, after due deliberation and for the reasons stated in its bench ruling at the Hearing, the Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion, as amended by the Statement and at the Hearing establish good and sufficient cause for the relief granted herein, which relief is in the best interests of the Debtors, their creditors, their estates and all other parties in interest; now, therefore,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. Pursuant to sections 363(b)(1) and 503(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the remaining relief requested in the Motion, as modified by the Statement and at the Hearing, is granted as set forth herein.
2. The 2022 KEIP is approved as to the CEO as set forth in the Debtors' Statement in Support of Motion of Debtors for Entry of an Order Authorizing Implementation of 2022 Key Employee Incentive Plan and 2022 Key Employee Retention Plan [ECF No. 4794] (the "Statement") and this Order; provided that (i) aggregate payments to the CEO under the 2022 KEIP shall not exceed $2,552,167.00, which represents a $500,000 reduction from the maximum amount of aggregate authorized payments with respect to the CEO sought in the Motion, (ii) the CEO irrevocably waives, and no claim shall be allowed or paid on account of, any extant rights to severance in connection with any separation of the CEO from the Company (or any new entity formed in connection with emergence), including under the Company's generally applicable severance plan (which currently would equate to $2,870,100.00), and (iii) the CDO will, on the effective date of any chapter 11 plan for the Debtors, tender an undated notice of retirement to the board of directors (or equivalent governing body) of the Debtors' successor, which board may accept and effectuate it if and when they see fit, provided that any retirement pursuant to such notice shall be deemed a termination without cause as of the date that it is effectuated for the purpose of the 2022 KEIP and all prior incentive compensation and similar programs (and, provided further, for the avoidance of doubt, that nothing in this paragraph shall limit any other rights of the company or the CEO with respect to retirement, resignation or termination), including, without limitation, under paragraph 8 of this Order.

3. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to take all actions necessary to implement the 2022 KEIP with respect to the CEO on the terms and conditions set forth in the Motion, but solely as modified by the Statement and this Order, including making any payments pursuant to the terms of the 2022 KEIP as to the CEO (as modified by the Statement and this Order).

4. Once earned, the Debtors' obligations to pay amounts that become due and owing under the 2022 KEIP as to the CEO shall constitute administrative expenses pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby entitled to priority payment pursuant to section 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. Nothing in this Order nor any action taken by the Debtors in furtherance of the implementation hereof shall be deemed to constitute an assumption or rejection of any executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and all of the Debtors' rights with respect to such matters are expressly reserved.

6. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein and any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained herein shall (a) create, nor is it intended to create, any rights in favor of, or enhance the status of any claim held by, any person or entity or (b) be deemed to convert the priority of any claim from a prepetition claim into an administrative expense claim.

7. Nothing in this Order nor the Debtors' payment of claims pursuant to this Order shall be construed as or deemed to constitute (a) an agreement or admission by the Debtors as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors on any ground, (b) a grant of third-party beneficiary status or bestowal of any additional rights on any third party, (c) a waiver or impairment of any rights, claims, or defenses of the Debtors' rights to dispute any claim on any ground, (d) a promise by the Debtors to pay any claim, or (e) an implication or admission by the Debtors that such claim is payable pursuant to this Order.

8. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent that the CEO is (a) determined by a final order of this Court or any other court of competent jurisdiction to have (x) knowingly participated in any criminal misconduct in connection with his employment with the Debtors or (y) been aware, other than from public sources, of acts or omissions of others that the CEO knew at the time were fraudulent or criminal with respect to the Company's commercial practices in connection with the sale of opioids and failed to report such fraudulent or criminal acts or omissions internally at the Company or to law enforcement authorities at any time during his employment with the Company, or (b) believed by the Company based on reasonable inquiry (including inquiry of its attorneys and advisors), which inquiry shall be completed prior to any payments being made to the CEO, to have met either of the standards in the foregoing clauses (a)(x) or (y), then in either case the CEO shall not be eligible to receive any payments approved by this Order. All parties' rights, if any, to seek disgorgement of payments following the entry of any final order referred to in clause (a) of the foregoing sentence are reserved. The CEO shall not take any action with respect to his compensation under the 2022 KEIP with the intent or material effect of frustrating enforcement of any potential judgment of the Court in these Chapter 11 Cases or any other actions pending against him in any other court or jurisdiction with respect to such amounts.

9. Any Bankruptcy Rule (including, but not limited to, Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h)) or Local Rule that might otherwise delay the effectiveness of this Order is hereby waived, for cause shown, and the terms and conditions of this Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon its entry.

10. The contents of the Motion and the notice procedures set forth therein are good and sufficient notice and satisfy the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York, and no other or further notice of the Motion or the entry of this Order shall be required.

11. The Debtors are authorized to take all such actions as are necessary or appropriate to implement the terms of this Order.

12. The Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.
